

Systems Audit Offer Terms and Conditions:

1. Interactive will provide a free non-disruptive audit for servers, storage, and any network devices (“Systems Audit”) to five organisations or entities who register their interest before 28 June 2024 subject to these terms and conditions and the form provided at interactive.com.au/discover-hidden-savings/
2. Entry is only available for residents of Australia entering on behalf of organisations or entities registered in Australia (a “Business”) with appropriate authority. The following are excluded from registration:
  - a. Any subsidiaries or agencies of Interactive;
  - b. Employees of Interactive and their immediate family members;
  - c. Shareholders and Officers of Interactive, and any of their associated or related companies; and
  - d. Any Interactive resellers or their subsidiaries.
3. Interactive may at its absolute discretion deem registrations invalid, even after a Business has been notified that it will receive a free Systems Audit, if it is discovered that the Business did not register in accordance with these terms and conditions or at Interactive’s absolute discretion.
4. Interactive will not perform the Systems Audit on any personal devices, laptops, point of sale system(s), and mobile phones or related devices.
5. This Systems Audit is only available for a Business located within 50 kilometres of our registered offices in each State and Territory.
6. Interactive may at its absolute discretion limit the hours, site, and/or volume of devices for the Systems Audit.
7. Interactive will perform the Systems Audit for a business day (no longer than 8 hours) at a time and date proposed by Interactive and subject to Interactive’s availability to perform the Systems Audit.
8. A Business should not rely solely on this Systems Audit to determine and audit its equipment and devices.
9. Interactive will provide a report to the Business at the end of the Systems Audit covering the devices audited, their serial number, and rack number (where reasonably practicable).
10. Interactive will not provide any free Systems Audit six months after the date the registrations close.
11. This Systems Audit is not exchangeable, transferable, or redeemable for cash, or any other service provided by Interactive, and is subject to Interactive’s terms and conditions of services (which will be provided to the Business and must be accepted by the Business before a Systems Audit is provided by Interactive).
